

Board of Directors Profile

Douglas P. Hill

Nungesser & Hill

Douglas Hill has been a partner at Nungesser & Hill, Meredith, New Hampshire, since 1977. He serves as counsel to conservation organizations, municipalities, and individuals in land related matters including zoning, conservation, boundaries and titles.

Doug graduated from Dartmouth College in 1966 and from Boston University School of Law (cum laude) in 1973. He served as Law Clerk to Justice Lawrence I. Duncan at the N.H. Supreme Court and later was a managing attorney for NH Legal Assistance. He has served as Expert witness in various courts and consults on real estate and land use matters for municipalities and environmental groups. He has lectured for N.H. Municipal Association, New Hampshire Bar Association, and New Hampshire Land Surveyors Association and various private conservation groups on technical conservation and real estate law matters.

Doug served on the IOLTA Grants Committee for three terms, is past president of N.H. Legal Assistance and is currently a member of the NHLA and LARC boards.